BUSINESS LICENSE RESPONSIBILITIES AND CONDITIONS

1. It is the business's sole responsibility to immediately notify the City of Missoula of any of the following:
 - a. Change of owner (License is non-transferable)
 - b. Change of address - mailing or physical location
 - c. Change in the nature of business

Any of these changes will require a new application and fees paid (if applicable) to be filled out and approved prior to reissuance of the license.

2. When closing the license, the business owner must do so in writing.
3. Penalties will be calculated on all delinquent licenses beginning thirty days after the expiration date.
4. Contractors: It is the responsibility of the business to provide current proof of insurance and appropriate bonds. A business license is void without current insurance and bonds.
5. Rentals: Fees are determined on the square footage of building.
6. Signs: Missoula City zoning ordinances Section 20.75.140(a) requires that a permit be obtained for all external signs. Failure to obtain the permit before the placement of the sign can result in additional fees.
7. ADA Accessibility: ADA accessibility, including parking spaces, at any business location shall not be altered or modified without approval of Development Services Engineering Division.
